ALICIA IS...

Neurotic, sexy, and more enlightened than you. (Not really.) Alicia has been on the spiritual and personal growth path for way too long, and she's ready to bust out. She's cussing, j-walking, and breaking all the rules. But in a funny, environmentally-friendly, co-dependent kind of way.

THE SHOW - ONE LIFE STAND

Dattner's new standup show is 75 minutes of funny. It's a modern-gal's guide to enlightenment, and other disorders. How to floss sustainably and sexily, how to tell if you love a love-avoidant, how to navigate angels appearing in your undies, how to spot a narcissist in the wild, how to win at heteronormative dating, drinking at yoga, sleeping while meditating, nonduality in bed, and accidental enlightenment... Oh, plus, there's a ukulele.

THE MARKET

Everybody's doing yoga these days, including Alicia, who sort of grew up in an ashram. America's finally come around to watching female comedians, practicing downward dog, and traveling in India, so it's a good time for Alicia. And she's making use of her strange upbringing to spread her hilarious musings on our country's current brand of hypocrisy. There's no shortage of potential fans. 100 million people in the US are single, 20 million do yoga, and 18 million meditate. Alicia's covert agenda is inviting the world to lighten the f up.
